

2nd Annual South Bay Film Festival Finalist List (JUST IN ANY RANDOM ORDER):

All the movies are excellent, they are all entertaining.

- 1. Accepted Homicide by Stephen Herron (CSULB Student)
Accepted Homicide is a dark comedy about a kid who gets accepted into Harvard Law School.
- 2. Confrontation by Kazuki Hirata (CSULB Student)
The confrontation is about two soldiers (American and Japanese) meeting in the forest during WWII, and about their final moment.
- 3. Opiate of Concrete by Dillan Conniff (Redondo Union Highschool)
A documentary about the addicting and painful side of skateboarding. Many believe that skateboarding is a simple sport when in reality it is an excruciating drug.
- 4. Parent Conference by Edgard de la Cruz (Bell Highschool)
The movie is about a misbehaved kid, going with his mom to his parent conference at his school, his mom only speaks Spanish and his teacher only speaks English so he has to translate.
- 5. Revenge by Edgard de la Cruz (Bell Highschool)
A short movie about a highschool boy seeking revenge.
- 6. Falling Hard by Brian Sheid (I'm assuming Stevenson University)
A guy sees the love of his life and goes to his best friend for advice on how to get with her.
- 7. Haley by Ramon Ugarte Jr. (San Bruno)
In only a matter of seconds, Haley prepares to make the most important decision of her life.
- 8. Jimmy goes to the Movies by Jonathan Noyola (South High School)
Jimmy goes to the movie is about movie about a car named Jimmy who is trying to drive to the Film Festival.
- 9. Once by Sainte Delude (El Camino College Professor)
About a jazz player falling in love with a girl.
- 10. Orange Bestiality by Joe Fontano (The Art Institute)
Ealine is stalked by someone that is orange, furry, big and fat.
- 11. Rag in a Bag by Ramon Gaspar (Torrance High School Alumni)
A new product designed by Rayco for women to have the perfect excuse when they do not want to have sex.

12. The Pig by Ricky Bhavnani (CSU Dominguez Hills & CSULB)

A young college student gets a girl's number on campus. Weeks later he contacts her, but she thinks it's another guy that she is deeply in love with. The guy goes along with it.

13. Send or Delete by Eric Weintraub (CSULB, think it was filmed in Santa Monica Highschool)

Send or Delete is the story of Beth Lawley, an innocent high school girl who sees the best in everyone. One day the school heartthrob, Jason asks Beth out. However Red – the school princess – also has Jason in mind as a love interest. When Red discovers Jason's interest in Beth, Red deploys cyber-bullying.

14. Skin Deep by Erasmo P. Romero III (Unknown)

Sameer's Comments: Most creepiest, weirdest, funniest movie you will see. Synopsis too long to write.

15. Kellie Coffey's "I Would die for That" by Tom Blomquist (CSULB Film Professor)

Filmed in Long Beach, "I would Die for that," is the first video from the singer-songwriter Kellie Coffey's independent CD, "Walk On."

16. Boulimos by Miguel Galindo (CSULB ALUMNI)

17. Men Love ***Holes by Allegra Ringo (CSULB Student)

18. A Walk in Memories by Elena Lugo (El Camino College)